

Privacy Statement

At the The Oyster Society, we understand the importance of protecting your privacy and personal information. This privacy statement explains how we collect, use, and protect your information when you engage our oyster shucking services at events in the United Kingdom.

Information we collect:

We collect information from you when you engage our services, including your name, contact information, and event details. We may also collect information about your dietary preferences or restrictions if you provide them to us.

How we use your information:

We use your information to provide our oyster shucking services to you and to communicate with you about your event. We may also use your information to improve our services, conduct research, and analyze trends.

Information sharing:

We do not share your information with any third parties except as necessary to provide our services to you, such as with event organizers or venue managers. We may also share your information as required by law.

Data retention:

We retain your information for as long as necessary to provide our services to you and as required by law. We will securely delete or anonymize your information once it is no longer needed.

Data security:

We take data security seriously and implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect your information against unauthorized access, disclosure, or destruction.

Your rights:

You have the right to access, correct, or delete your information at any time. You may also request that we restrict the processing of your information or transfer your information to another party. To exercise these rights or if you have any questions or concerns about our privacy practices, please contact us using the information provided on our website.

Changes to this statement:

We may update this privacy statement from time to time to reflect changes in our practices or applicable laws. We will notify you of any material changes to this statement by posting a notice on our website or contacting you directly.

Thank you for choosing the The Oyster Society. We are committed to protecting your privacy and providing you with the best possible experience at your event.
